

Semper Fidelis “always faithful”?

SOMERVILLE MA:

PRESS RELEASE

John Deaton Semper Fidelis “always faithful”?

One of the three viable Elizabeth Warren’s advisories running for U.S. Senate, John Deaton, is a veteran. He served our country as a Marine. How can he not align himself with “Make America Great Again”? Why does he repeatedly avow his hatred for President Donald Trump, true American patriots, and veterans?

A marine takes an oath “to support and defend the Constitution of the United States against all enemies foreign and domestic”. Semper Fidelis.

Bob Antonellis, lives by a code of honor. He has not sworn an oath to the military but as a lifelong proud American he believes in defending the U.S. Constitution. Always faithful.

According to The Daily Beast, (Brodie, 2024) Deaton Tweeted, “You (Trump) actually may be the worst human being in the US,” and “you have without question the mind of a 4-year-old...” “...anyone that believes the nonsense and BS that you are shoveling now is to be judged as a complete and utter moron.” Not Semper Fidelis.

Antonellis's campaign promotes election integrity, government accountability, and a return to constitutional principles. He supports President Donald J. Trump's agenda of America First – Always faithful

Trump-Derangement-Syndrome (TDS) is apparent on social media, mainstream media and in so many Anti-American behaviors. Deaton's self-proclaimed symptoms are readable in his book, Food Stamp Warrior. Not Semper Fidelis.

Both of Deaton's rivals, Antonellis and Cain, agree that John Deaton is unfit for any form of public service, especially Federal Office.

Respectfully submitted and always faithful,

Robert Antonellis

U.S. Senate Candidate [R-MA]
