John Deaton and Ian Cain take the Same Anti-Trump Position

During the WRKO Massachusetts Senate Republican Primary Debate on August 8th, moderator, Jeff Kuhner, asked each candidate if they would vote for Donald J. Trump in November?

Bob Antonellis replied “YES” and supports America first policies.

But it exposed the Achilles’ Heel of John Deaton and Ian Cain. They each said they would not vote for Trump, Harris or Kennedy. They are abstaining from supporting the Republican Presidential nominee.

Ask yourself how two Republican candidates voice the same position and will not support the party? Is this the advice coming from the Crypto World?

If they are not willing to commit to an America first presidential vote, which is a vote against the “Border Czar” how can you believe their claims that they would prioritize the border?

Can we believe their claim to be against tampons in the boys’ room when they are not even willing to vote against Tim Walz, whose nickname is now, “Tampon Tim”?

Cain and Deaton are part of the problem in Washington D.C. Robert “Bob” Antonellis is the solution.
